The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance

When questioned by the probation officer, Mr. Jaeb stated that a female friend contacted him and asked him to pick her up from a bar in Coeur d' Alene, Idaho. She further informed him that she had been drinking and the male she was with had become physical with her. Subsequently, Mr. Jaeb traveled to the District of Idaho to pick her up, but when he arrived at the bar, he could not locate her inside the establishment. He denied consuming alcohol and stated that he remained in the bar for a short period of time while he looked for his friend. He reportedly located her down the street from the bar a short time later and took her home.

It should be noted, on August 31, 2024, Mr. Jaeb sent an email to the probation officer advising of his police contact and explaining the aforementioned situation.

Supporting Evidence: The offender is alleged to have violated standard condition number 3, by leaving the judicial district without permission for his probation officer, on or about August 31, 2024.

As noted in violation number 6, the offender traveled to the District of Idaho on or about August 31, 2024. He failed to obtain permission from the probation officer to travel outside of the judicial district.
